

2025 Report on Forced Labour and Child Labour

This Report addresses the period from January 1, 2025 to December 31, 2025 and has been prepared in compliance with the Fighting Against Forced Labour and Child Labour in Supply Chains Act (Canada)(the “Act”). This Report is made on behalf of 1916354 Alberta Ltd. dba Dumur Industries.

1. Introduction

Dumur Industries and its subsidiaries (the “Company”, “Dumur”), acknowledge our responsibility to combat forced and child labour and are committed to acting ethically and with integrity and transparency. We are working to put systems and controls in place to safeguard against any form of forced or child labour occurring within our supply chain.

2. Our Business

Dumur Industries and its subsidiaries, Dellcom Aerospace and J/E Bearing & Machine Ltd., manufacture and supply parts and assemblies to customers who operate predominantly in the aerospace and defense sectors of industry. Customers may be Canadian or International corporations with operations mainly in North America and Europe.

The head office of Dumur Industries is in White City, SK while Dellcom Aerospace and J/E Bearing are located in Ontario. Dumur and J/E Bearing are focused mainly on producing land defense systems while Dellcom Aerospace provides parts and assemblies for commercial and military aerospace companies. The Company employs approximately 160 people.

3. Our Supply Chains

In the highly regulated aerospace and defense sectors, supply chains are primarily directed and approved by the customers. These directed sources are controlled by the customer and are almost always long-term relationships that account for most of the procured material at Dumur.

Dumur Industries also manages its own supply chain. These suppliers will provide raw materials (steel, aluminum, etc.), tooling, shop supplies, machinery and hardware. Dumur may also engage service providers for computer services, communication, payroll, legal and other administrative functions. Any supplier providing a product or service goes through a formal approval process at Dumur in accordance with our AS9100 certification requirements.

4. Our Policies

The Dumur Management System policies and procedures establishes the organization Dumur Industries strives to be and management’s commitment to ensuring the Company operates within the laws of Canada. In setting these goals Dumur has established a strict policy base to both protect the Company and its employees and ensure that we meet or exceed expectations for ethical business practices.

As part of the on-boarding process at Dumur Industries, new employees are required to read, understand and sign the Dumur Employee Handbook. This Employee Handbook is part of Dumur’s Management System policies and procedures and is reviewed annually to ensure compliance with Canadian and International business standards. The Employee Handbook deals with issues in the workplace such as discrimination, harassment and violence. It also determines the conditions under which employees will work and how they will treat others.

In 2025, Dumur Industries continued to promote awareness of its Code of Ethics Policy and Forced Labour and Child Labour Policies through onboarding and employee awareness boards.

5. Assessing Our Risk

In 2025, Dumur Industries updated its supply chain vetting process by launching new risk assessments for both new and existing vendors. These assessments specifically collect data to identify and evaluate risks of forced labour and child labour across the company's approved supplier list.

6. Our Plans for 2026
